

Focus special: division one is one of the TOP headhunters in Germany

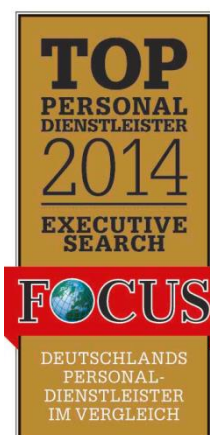

June 4, 2014 – division one is one of the leading executive search companies in Germany. The German news magazine Focus has determined this in a large career special. More than 1,300 executives from the human resources departments of companies all over Germany participated in this survey that was carried out jointly with the web portal Xing. division one was chosen over 2,000 competitors in the German market in the top 50 of the German executive search firms.

Björn Knothe, CEO of division one, comments on the pleasing rating result: "We are very proud to have been chosen among the top executive search firms in Germany. This choice shows that clients in Germany expect a very high quality when it comes to implementing mandates. A big thank you to all our colleagues who with their work in recent years have met these expectations of our clients." In an increasingly complex business world personnel service acquires new responsibilities. Focus took the opportunity to look behind the scenes of the headhunters and recruitment industry and to evaluate it from the perspective of human resources departments and candidates. Each company had to be evaluated in different categories: quality of candidate selection and quality of presented candidates, quality of service, communication and price-performance ratio. Only companies that scored points in all categories were included in the selection of the top executive search consultancies.
